

Review

CRNA GORA I REGIONALNE INICIJATIVE

Sasa KNEZEVIC<sup>1</sup>

University of Montenegro, Faculty of Political Science, Street: 13. jul, 2, 81000 Podgorica, Montenegro
email: sasakn@t-com.me

ABSTRACT:

The main theme of this paper is the analysis of regional initiatives and multilateral cooperation in the Balkans, almost from the time of the signing the Dayton Agreement in 1995 to the present. The analytical focus of this paper is aimed to describe the intensity and quality of current multilateral cooperation, through the Regional Cooperation Council, CEFTA platform, Montenegrin initiative WB6, and the entire Euro-Atlantic integration framework. From the restoration of independency in 2006, Montenegro very actively participates in all regional initiatives. At the same time, the main goals of foreign policy of Montenegro are to integrate in EU and NATO.

KEY WORD:

Balkans; Regional Initiatives; Council for Regional Cooperation; European Union; CEFTA.

---

<sup>1</sup> SASA KNEZEVIC: historian - professor at the Faculty of Political Sciences, University of Montenegro. Associate professor of subjects Contemporary History of International Relations, Fundamentals of Diplomacy and History of Balkan Relations at the Faculty of Political Sciences.